MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

The Court issued a Trial Order (“Order”) on November 29, 2021. (Doc # 56) The Order outlined instructions to the Parties on pre-trial motions, including motions in limine. In section H. of the Order, the Court ordered “a party’s motion in limine and memoranda in support shall not exceed a total of ten (10) pages in length. The memoranda in opposition shall not exceed a total of ten (10) pages in length.”

When Defendant filed its motion in limine (Doc #72) it sought a ruling on five separate issues. Defendant could have under the Order submitted five motions in limine for a total of fifty pages of briefing for the Court.

Plaintiff in her diligent attempts to be efficient in her arguments in response to the five motions in limine has been able reduce her argument to a single sixteen-page filing. The best interests of having an efficient trial and justice require that Plaintiff be able to provide a fulsome response to Defendant’s motion. Plaintiff believes this modest extension of the page limitation will allow for the Court to render the most just decision on Defendant’s motion.

Plaintiff respectfully requests that she be allowed to exceed the Order’s page limit for memoranda to sixteen pages.

Respectfully submitted,
